

A Will gives you control over who is to receive your money and property after you pass away.

Kindred Wills & Trusts can provide a friendly, personal and bespoke service designed to sensitively guide you, step-by-step through the process of ensuring your wishes are documented concisely and reflect exactly what you want.

Making a Will:

Giving you control over who inherits your assets. We will guide and support you through the process of ensuring your wishes are documented concisely and reflect exactly what you want.

Lasting Powers of Attorney (LPA):

Allowing you to decide who will look after your financial and welfare decisions if you are unable to make the necessary decisions for yourself. We will support you to ensure that your wishes are documented concisely and reflect exactly what you want.

Grant of Probate:

Ensuring there is legal confirmation that your Will is valid. We will support you to obtain the grant of probate, confirming that your will has been officially registered. Then, only the executors that you named in the Will are the ones with authority to deal with your estate.

Estate and Trust Administration

We will refer your probate application to an efficient and competitively priced estate administration service to apply for probate, ensuring that your wishes are administered in a timely and cost effective way.

Inheritance Tax Planning:

Essential for estates over £325k. We will design a comprehensive and bespoke plan to ensure that your legacy is distributed to your loved ones not the Taxman!

Protecting your property against care home costs:

Giving you peace of mind that your property is protected against the ravages of care costs, we will offer advice of how to structure the ownership of your home to provide the best possible level of protection.

Did you know that without a Will your spouse or civil partner may not automatically inherit all of your estate?

Did you know that without a Will you are seen as legally single? So your partner would inherit nothing.

Did you know that if you are remarried, your children may not be entitled to inherit anything?

I am married.

I have a partner

I have children from a previous relationship.

I own property.

I have new grandchildren.
Did you know that you can add new and future grandchildren to your Will so that they will inherit directly from you?

I have assets worth over £650,000

Did you know that by writing a Will you can significantly reduce the inheritance tax you pay?

BE IN CONTROL...

Who would you rather be your beneficiary?